

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

A prestigious secondary qualification

CI Arb is the world's leading professional membership body for dispute resolution. CI Arb membership provides a prestigious secondary qualification:

- members are able to progress to Chartered or Accredited status
- recognisable post-nominal letters (ACI Arb, MCI Arb, FCI Arb)

Training and development

CI Arb sets the global benchmark in dispute resolution:

- continuing professional development (CPD)
- education and training opportunities
- conferences, seminars and other events
- professional networking and social events
- panel membership for Presidential appointments

Access to information and knowledge

CI Arb offers members a range of professional advice and guidance:

- dispute resolution advice service and professional practice guidelines and protocols
- free subscription to the quarterly academic journal, Arbitration (worth over £200) now with a searchable on-line library
- The Resolver magazine – quarterly members' magazine and e-Solver news watch
- global website (www.ciarb.org) including members' area
- Free weekly Linex Legal alert service (worth £100) – a range of articles and reviews covering key topics, written by major law firms and other leading specialists
- Discounted rates for members on products and services e.g. professional indemnity insurance, books, events
- Access to CI Arb's library situated at Maughan Library, Kings College London

Networking opportunities, locally and internationally

CI Arb membership offers a global dispute resolution community:

- a worldwide network of members, Branches and Chapters
- online networking and discussion fora
- special interest groups
- opportunities for active involvement

Additional benefits

CI Arb member products and services:

- hearing and meeting facilities at 12 Bloomsbury Square, London
- CI Arb Advantage Scheme – offers savings on travel, lifestyle, and other business services
- promotional opportunities