17 June 2008

1.5 HOUR SEMINAR
1.5 CPD POINTS IN THE
ETHICS OR ADVOCACY STRANDS

If cross-examination remains the great engine for discovering the truth, driving it has become more complicated in light of the statutory and ethical constraints imposed upon barristers. The purpose of this seminar is to provide an overview of such constraints.

The position under the general law, pursuant to the recent amendments, as yet uncommenced, to section 41 of the Evidence Act, 1995 and the proposed amendments to the Bar Rules will be considered, with a view to trying to provide some guidance on the sometimes thorny issue of separating proper from improper cross-examination.

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED
