NOTES

Limit on number of subpoenas

1. Unless the Court directs otherwise, a party or independent children's lawyer must not request the issue of more than 5 subpoenas in a proceeding.

Service of subpoena

2. Where this subpoena requires the person to attend court to give evidence, the issuing party must serve this subpoena personally on the person subpoenaed at least 7 days before the date for attending court
3. Where this subpoena requires the person to attend court to give evidence and to produce documents, the issuing party must serve this subpoena personally on the person subpoenaed at least 10 days before the date for attending court.
4. Where this subpoena requires the person to produce documents to the Court, the issuing party must serve this subpoena on the person subpoenaed at least 10 days before the date for producing documents.

Service of copy of subpoena

5. The issuing party must serve by ordinary service a copy of this subpoena on each other party, any interested person and any independent children's lawyer in the proceeding within a reasonable time before attendance or production under the subpoena is required.
6. An 'interested person' means a person who might reasonably have an interest in the subject matter of the subpoena.

Cost of complying with subpoena

7. The person serving the subpoena must give the person subpoenaed conduct money sufficient for return travel between the place of residence or employment (as appropriate) of the person subpoenaed and the Court. The amount of conduct money must be at least $25.
8. If you are the person subpoenaed and you are not a party in the proceeding and you will incur substantial loss or expense in properly complying with the subpoena, you may apply to the Court for an order that the issuing party pay you an amount (in addition to conduct money) in respect of the loss or expense. If you wish to make such an application, you must, before complying with the subpoena, give notice to the issuing party that substantial loss or expense would be incurred in properly complying with the subpoena, including an estimate of the loss or expense.

Objection to production, inspection or copying of documents

9. The person required by this subpoena to produce documents or things may object to producing a document by completing filing and serving the attached Notice of Objection – Subpoena before the date specified in this subpoena for production.
10. Any party or any interested person may object to inspection or copying of a document described in this subpoena by completing filing and serving the attached Notice of Objection – Subpoena before the date specified in this subpoena for production.

Automatic release of documents for inspection or copying (Part C)

11. Subject to any objection being upheld or an order of the Court and subject to the issuing party filing a notice of request to inspect in the approved form, each party and any independent children's lawyer may, by appointment, inspect all documents produced in response to this subpoena and may take copies of all documents produced in response to this subpoena (other than a child welfare record, medical record, criminal record or police record).
12. A person who inspects or copies a document produced in response to this subpoena must:
 - (a) use the document for the purpose of the proceeding only, and
 - (b) not disclose the contents of the document or give a copy of it to any other person without the Court's permission.

Child welfare, medical, criminal and police records

13. Child welfare records, medical records, criminal records and police records produced in response to this subpoena will be available for inspection by each party and any independent children's lawyer, but these records will not be available for copying.

Child welfare records are records relating to child welfare held by a State or Territory agency mentioned in Schedule 9 to the Family Law Regulations 1984.

Note: For child welfare records, there may be restrictions on inspection imposed by protocols entered into between the Court and the relevant child welfare department

Criminal record means a record of offences for which the person has been found guilty.

Medical record means the histories, reports, diagnoses, prognoses, interpretations and other data or records, written or electronic, relating to the person's medical condition, that are maintained by a physician, hospital or other provider of services or facilities for medical treatment.

Police record means records relating to the person kept by the police, including statements, police notes and records of interview.

Objection by person to inspection of medical records

14. If the documents to be produced under this subpoena include a person's medical records, that person may, before the date stated for production, notify the Registrar in writing that he or she wants to inspect the records for the purpose of determining whether to object to the inspection or copying of the document by any other party.
15. If such notice is given:
 - (a) that person may inspect the medical records and may, within 7 days after the date stated in the subpoena for production, object to inspection or copying of a document described in this subpoena by completing filing and serving the attached Notice of Objection – Subpoena, and
 - (b) unless otherwise ordered, no other person may inspect the medical records until the later of 7 days after the date stated in the subpoena for production or the hearing and determination of the objection.

Time and date for hearing an objection

16. Any objection in relation to this subpoena will be heard before a Federal Magistrate or Registrar. The Registrar will advise the parties and the objector of the time and date when the objection will be heard.
