

World Indigenous Legal Conference – June 2014

Call for Papers

The World Indigenous Legal Conference 2014 will be hosted by the Indigenous Lawyers Association of Queensland, from 23-27 June 2014, at Queensland University of Technology (QUT), Brisbane, Australia. The theme of the conference is “Past, Present and Future”. The conference will incorporate the Australian National Indigenous Legal Conference 2014.

Held biennially the Conference brings together Indigenous lawyers and academics and those interested in understanding issues critical to the development of Indigenous peoples.

To ensure that the Conference is international in focus, the organising committee is seeking to attract a diverse range of local and international speakers who can bring to the Conference a range of experiences, perspectives and insights on key Indigenous issues that will form the Conference program. Accordingly, speakers are invited to submit an abstract of a maximum of 350 words focused on one or more of the following topics, which we encourage you to interpret and apply broadly and creatively:

- Relationship to Land
- Social Constructionism
- Economic Independence
- Human Rights
- Climate Change
- Indigenous Knowledge
- Recognition of First Nation People
- Criminal Justice
- Women and Children
- Nation Building

Please submit your abstract by 7 February 2014 to ilaq@outlook.com using the ‘Abstract Submission Form’.

Selected conference papers will be published in a special edition of QUT Law Review. To be considered for publication final papers of between 4,000 and 8,000 words must be submitted to the QUTLR by 25 April 2014. Please ensure that your paper complies with QUTLR’s ‘Editorial and Style and Format Guidelines’ available at: <https://lr.law.qut.edu.au/about/submissions#authorGuidelines>

Please note that the time allotted for each speaker will be 30 minutes (including 5-10 minutes for questions).
