The New South Wales Bar Association

The ADR Committee is offering members with 7 years' experience as legal practitioners and a practising certificate the opportunity to become approved Arbitrators.

Attendees will be required to sign in at the door and to fill out an application form for approval as well as write an interim award based on a scenario which will be run across the three workshops. Approved arbitrators will be listed initially on the Bar's website and later in documents which will be made available to solicitors and the public.

Members who do not fulfill the requirement of 7 years' practice are invited to attend to increase their expertise in this area. Consideration will be given to approving those who can demonstrate substantial expertise in a particular area.

The following topics will be addressed:

- Supreme Court Arbitration List (The Hon Justice R McDougall)
- Making the award and writing reasons (Ian Bailey SC, Janet Grey)
- Challenging the award. Enforcement of domestic and foreign arbitral awards (Malcolm Gracie)
- Practical tips on running an arbitration – panel (Peter Callaghan SC, Ian Bailey SC, Robert Hunt, Steven Goldstein)

This is the third and final workshop in the series.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE
