Common Room

5.15pm Thursday

27 March 2014

1.5 HOUR SEMINAR
1.5 CPD POINTS IN THE
ADVOCACY OR
SUBSTANTIVE LAW STRAND

The practice of utilising expert conferences and concurrent evidence to narrow the issues in complex native title claims has become common practice over the past 2 years. Utilising expert conferences and concurrent evidence has greatly reduced court time and the costs to the parties. The presenters will outline the development and practice of utilising expert conferencing and expert concurrent evidence generally and discuss some recent examples in native title proceedings with an emphasis on the strengths and weaknesses of the practice.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE NSW
