5.15pm

Monday 14 August 2017

1 HOUR SEMINAR
1 CPD POINTS IN THE
SUBSTANTIVE LAW STRAND

Frank H. Wu, author, law professor, former law school Dean and head of prestigious non-profit Chinese American membership organisation, the Committee of 100, will discuss the American experience with race relations and how Asian immigrants and their American born descendants have been integral in the development of Constitutional law and common law. He will discuss seminal cases on issues such as citizenship, racial equality and due process offering examples of progress on cultural diversity in the American legal profession. He will engage in dialogue about how democracy and diversity can work together as ideals to achieve better client outcomes.
