The New South Wales Bar Association is pleased to present
a Career at the Bar Open Day for law students

Thursday, 26 October 2017

The Open Day provides an invaluable opportunity for law students to meet successful barristers and obtain an overview of the nature of practice at the Bar. A range of presentations will be held to provide some insight into what life is really like at the NSW Bar.

The proposed timetable for the day is as follows:

- 9.00am Welcome Arthur Moses SC, President, New South Wales Bar Association & Lisa-Claire Hutchinson, Barrister, Forbes Chambers
- 9.30am What is life at the Bar is really like?
This session will include a panel of barristers from various backgrounds and jurisdictions.
- 10.30am Morning tea
- 11.00am How do I become a barrister?
Discussion of the Bar Exams, Bar Practice Course and your first year at the Bar.
- 12.00pm Open forum: Questions from students
- 12.30pm Close
