Administrative decision makers are often required to consider a range of issues and factors, together with particular documents or the representations of interested parties. This seminar will consider whether these situations can all be meaningfully addressed by a “relevant considerations” ground of review, and whether the nature of the requirement to consider depends on the nature of the matter to be considered.

This seminar has been organised by the NSW Bar Association’s Public Law Section.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE NSW BAR ASSOCIATION

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED
