On Monday 26 March 2018 the Bar Association will host an event commemorating 25 years since the Honourable Paul Keating's historic Redfern Park Speech. In doing so we hope to remind people of the speech and the aspirations it conveyed. The event will provide a timely opportunity for members of the Association to reflect upon the extent to which progress has been made over the past 25 years in relation to the various issues raised in the speech and, more importantly, the work still to be done. The event, which has been rescheduled from last December, will be held in the Bar Association Common Room on the lower ground floor of Selborne Chambers, 174 Phillip St, Sydney.
