Common Room

5.15pm Wednesday 28

February 2018

1.5 HOUR SEMINAR
1.5 CPD POINTS IN THE
SUBSTANTIVE LAW, PRACTICE
AND PROCEDURE, AND EVIDENCE STRAND

Across three decades as Chief Justice of the King's Bench, Lord Mansfield laid the foundations for modern insurance law and the way in which it is litigated. In this seminar, Justice Meagher reflects upon the persistent issues driving those reforms and the role of courts in accommodating commercial practice and change.

This seminar has been organised by the NSW Bar Association Commercial Law Section and forms part of an ongoing lecture series on commercial topics. Further seminars later in the year to be announced in due course.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE NSW
BAR ASSOCIATION

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED
